Foreword

We are happy to present The 1987 Cornerstone. We hope this yearbook will help you to remember challenging, interesting and enjoyable moments at the Maryland School for the Deaf.

The 1986-1987 school year was a very busy one at the Maryland School for the Deaf. We had challenging classes that helped us to achieve and to grow. Most of us were really excited about the expansion and use of the computer program. We had many interesting speakers who presented informative assemblies which helped us to learn. The spring Science Fair was successful and we were surprised at the innovative projects of many students. This year the Intermediate Department and the Advanced Department really entered into competition to see who could have the most on the various honor rolls.

Off campus, the Masonry classes participated in the Frederick County Builders Olympics and won first place for the second straight year. Six students from the Maryland School for the Deaf entered the Optimist Club's public speaking contest and all six were winners.

This was a big year for our athletic teams. Not only did they have successful seasons but a number of our teams won E.S.D.A.A. championships as well as receiving national honors. Individual athletes also received honors. The big project for the Scouts this year was a trip to Wisconsin to participate in the Deaf Scout Camporee. The M.S.D. Drama Department presented "Beauty and the Beast" as its spring play. It was an outstanding production and was well received by M.S.D. students as well as public school students from the Frederick area. The Vocational classes took on special projects around the campus. Most notable of these were development and beautification of the mall areas outside the dormitories, the construction of a greenhouse, and beginning work on renovating the Loats house.

Read the book, look at the pictures, recall the 1986-1987 year and have happy memories.

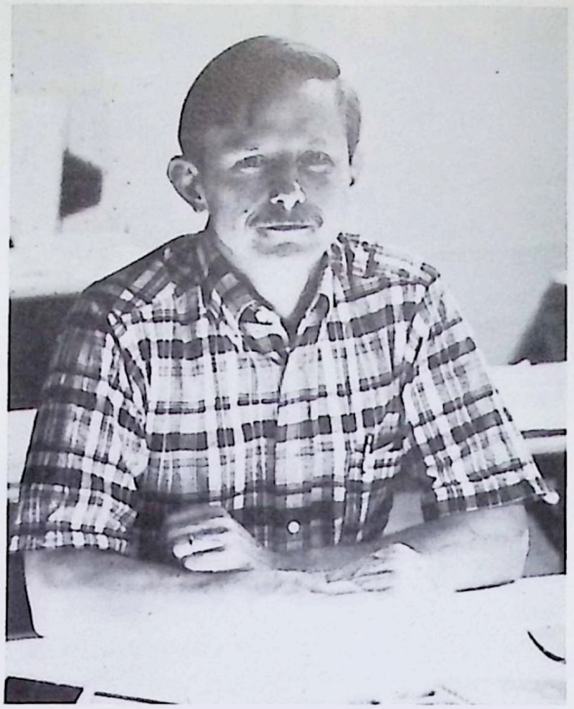
Dedication

Merle J. Foley

Merle in 1962

Thomas in 1968



E. Thomas McKenna

The Maryland School for the Deaf is proud to dedicate The Cornerstone of 1987 to two staff members who have given long and faithful service to the school, Mr. Merle J. Foley and Mr. E. Thomas McKenna.

Mr. Foley graduated from the Minnesota School for the Deaf and then attended Gallaudet College. Upon graduation, he joined the staff of the Louisiana School for the Deaf for two years. In the fall of 1962, Mr. Foley came to the Maryland School for the Deaf and has continued to serve as a member of the Vocational staff teaching Graphic Arts.

Mr. E. Thomas McKenna graduated from the Virginia School for the Deaf after which he attended Gallaudet College. Upon graduation from Gallaudet in 1968, he joined the staff at the Maryland School for the Deaf where he, too, continues to serve as a member of the Vocational Department teaching Graphic Arts.

Both of these men have demonstrated deep interest and much patience as they instructed students in printing and helped prepare them for the day they could be earning their own livings. Work habits and attitudes were emphasized along with skills so their students not only would get jobs but could keep these jobs. Mr. Foley and Mr. McKenna have given generously of their time not only in instructing students but completing the many special jobs requested of them. Many times the lights burned late in the print shop as these men and their students worked to complete The Maryland Bulletin, to print special schedules and forms, to reprint articles and to meet yearbook deadlines. The end results were always printed products of which the school could be proud.

It is a double pleasure to dedicate The 1987 Cornerstone to Mr. Merle J. Foley and Mr. E. Thomas McKenna.

Merle and Tom were surprised during the Dedication ceremony presented by Editor-in-Chief Deanna Piper in the Ely Auditorium. On the stage those three watched Dr. David M. Denton's and Mr. Kenneth Kritz's comments on Merle and Tom.

Beauty and the Beast

What is this buzzing noise?

And don't forget to bring me food!

Dreams come true!

Help me, please help me!

Here, milady, this is the largest diamond in the world.

First of all you shall . . . smile. I have seen no one smile for a very long time.

Is there another promise you must keep?
